We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high ✠ in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O GOD, THE PROTECTOR OF ALL THAT TRUST IN THEE, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy, that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: 1 Kings 3:5–12 (all sit)

AT GIBEON THE LORD APPEARED TO SOLOMON in a dream by night; and God said, “Ask what I shall give you.” And Solomon said, “Thou hast shown great and steadfast love to thy servant David my father, because he walked before thee in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward thee; and thou hast kept for him this great and steadfast love, and hast given him a son to sit on his throne this day. And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people whom thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. Give thy servant therefore an understanding mind to govern thy people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to govern this thy great people?” It pleased the LORD that Solomon had asked this. And God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you.”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual: In Deo speravit cor meum

Mode V

In Deo speravit cor meum, et adiutus sum:
et refloruit caro mea: et ex voluntate mea confitebor illi. V. Ad te, Domine, clamavi:
Deus meus, ne sileas: ne discedas a me.

My heart trusteth in God, and I am helped:
therefore my heart danceth for joy: and in my song will I praise him. V. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me: my
God, go not far from me. (Psalms 28:8)

Second Lesson: Romans 8:26–34

THE SPIRIT HELPS US IN OUR WEAKNESS, for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words. And he who searches the hearts of men knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, will he not also give us all things with him? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies; who is to condemn? Is it Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us?

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Alleluia: Exsultate Deo adjutori nostro

Mode VII

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Exsultate Deo adjutori nostro, jubilate Deo Jacob: sumite psalmum jucundum cum cithara. Alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Sing we merrily unto God our strength; make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob: take the psalm, bring hither the tabret. Alleluia. (Psalms 81:1-2)

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 13: 31–33, 44–49a

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

ANOTHER PARABLE JESUS PUT BEFORE THE CROWDS, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.” He told them another parable. “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened. The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net which was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind; when it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into vessels but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Nicene Creed (all stand, as able)

Prayer Book, page 327

I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven (all genuflect), and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man (all stand); and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried; and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church; I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead, ✠ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Confession of Sin and Absolution

Prayer Book, page 330

The Celebrant bids the People make a general confession of their sins.

All kneel, as able.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men: We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us, the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant pronounces the absolution.

Offertory: Exaltabo te

Mode II

Exaltabo te, Domine, quoniam suscepisti me,
nec delectasti inimicos meos super me: Domine
clamavi ad te, et sanasti me.

I will magnify thee, O Lord for thou hast set me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me.
O Lord, my God, I cried unto thee: and thou hast healed me. (Psalm 30:1-2)

The Celebrant may state the intention of the Mass, concluding

Pray, brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to the Lord our God.
People May the Lord receive this sacrifice at thy hands, to the praise and glory of his Name, both to our benefit and that of all his holy Church.

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. ✠ For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Peace

The Celebrant breaks the bread and says

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access (all kneel, as able)

Prayer Book, page 337

WE DO NOT PRESUME to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Celebrant Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him that taketh away the sins of the world.

Communion

Communion: Simile est regnum caelorum

Mode VIII

Simile est regnum caelorum homini negotiatori, quaerenti bonas margaritas: inventa una pretiosa margarita, dedit omnia sua, et comparavit eam.

The kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it. (Matthew 13:45-46)

A prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, dear Lord, with the faithful at every altar of the Church where thy Blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father, I desire to offer thee praise and thanksgiving. I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And since I cannot at this time receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my soul. I unite myself unto thee, and embrace thee with all the affections of my heart. Let me never be separated from thee. Let me live and die in thy love. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Prayer Book, page 339

Celebrant Let us pray.

The People may join in saying this prayer

ALmighty and Everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

PARISH NOTES

26 July 2020

The Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

While the Bishop of New York has, from July 1, allowed churches to return to public worship slowly and carefully at reduced capacity and incorporating strict social distancing requirements, the Rector, in consultation with the Churchwardens and Vestry, has determined that the church building will remain closed through at least Labor Day. This extends the parish's suspension of public worship through Sunday, 2 September.

We will continue, therefore, to worship together in other ways.

Solemn Mass is live streamed on our YouTube Channel Sundays at 11 AM EDT, and available to watch anytime after: www.YouTube.com/SaintIgnatiusNYC

Evening Prayer is said weekdays at 6 PM EDT on Zoom

The Great Litany is said Fridays at Noon EDT on Zoom

The Office of the Dead is prayed Saturdays at 10 AM EDT on Zoom

Links to all Zoom services are found here: ww.saintignatiusnyc.org/this_week.html

You will see information about Education and Outreach below.

Today's Mass will have the liturgical offertory in its usual place and we will sing the proper chant. Nevertheless, virtual ushers will not be passing the plate. There are, however, still many ways for you to fulfil your Annual Stewardship or Capital Campaign pledge, or make a donation to the church. The easiest way for you to do this is via PayPal, accessed by clicking the Donate button on the front page of our web site: <http://www.saintignatiusnyc.org>

Your support remains essential during this period to ensure our continued operations in these challenging times, so we can serve you and our community, and keep up our historic building for the time when we are all back together once again.

NOTES ON TODAY'S MUSIC: Kate Boundy was from Exeter, an Associate of the Royal College of Music, and music teacher in London in the 1890s. She published several works for organ including her Andante patetico which makes expressive use of the opening and closing of the swell shade. The Plainsong Ordinary setting numbered XI in the liturgical books published by the monks of Solesmes is a composite of melodies which make their earliest appearances in manuscript in the tenth, eleventh, and fourteenth centuries, some of them best known in variants produced in the sixteenth. These are approved by custom as a set for Sundays throughout the year. — Richard Porterfield

PRAYER LIST: If you wish to place yourself or someone dear to you on the prayer list, please contact the office either by email (office@saintignatiusnyc.org) or phone (212-580-3326). In these days of strict privacy laws we will not know if you or a member of your family is ill or in hospital unless you tell us. Names will be placed on the list for six weeks, after which time they will be removed, unless renewed. Submissions should arrive by Wednesday at noon to be included in the bulletin for the following Sunday.

THE LEOPARDS: Helping Parishioners Help Each Other: Deacon Paul Kahn and Lucy Kuemmerle are working with a group of dedicated parishioners to help keep us together as a community in these days and to help provide assistance to those in need. You will hear from the Rector in the next few days with details of the initiatives they are putting in place, including a parish phone tree to stay connected, a list of prayer and spiritual resources, and various efforts for mutual, shared reflection on scripture and the present moment. As always the Leopards are also always ready to help out with your specific needs. Please be sure to contact Deacon Paul (pskahn@verizon.net) if you want to volunteer to help out on these efforts or if you need assistance.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION: We have expanded our Christian Formation offerings with a weekly discussion of the Daily Office readings on Thursdays at 4 pm on Zoom, facilitated by Deacon Kahn and Fr Towner. Each meeting will span the Daily Office readings of the preceding seven days. Father Towner and Deacon Kahn do not envision the readings as “homework that must be done in advance, but rather as common territory in some part of which (this reading or that) each of us will undoubtedly have encountered something we wish to share with one another, whether a fresh insight, or an old connection made meaningful again in our present. It will be a time to appreciate the relationship we enjoy in Christ as we reflect together on the story of our redemption.” You will find the Zoom meeting details on the web site in the weekly calendar and Father Blume will also email them to the parish each Thursday morning. For more information contact Deacon Kahn (pskahn@verizon.net).
